"This pianist is one of the most strong and innovative among others on the Italian jazz scene. He is the artistic heir of the master Giorgio Gaslini, so he stands out for its artistic eclecticism, his technique and originality of his compositions."

Andy Magazine (Italy)

"A surreal and suggestive ambience that enchants and captivates the mind."

Stefano Dentice

"Orio has been described as one of the most inventive pianists of his generation, no small feat in a country with a such a rich piano tradition. His playing has a distinctly lyrical touch and the playfulness in this trio is propelled by Orio's ostinato grooves and occasionally angular motifs which lay the groundwork for buoyant improvisation".
